Dear Rich,

I just finishing reading your most recent article entitled, "HME's Moving Target". The article was a profile about our company CEO, Jerry Jones. You captured Jerry's personality and business ethics perfectly. It truly sounds just like him talking.

In recent months Homedco has been the subject of many journal articles. All of them have been very positive, but none have hit the head on the nail as squarely as yours.

We have ordered reprints of the article to use for marketing and investor relations. Thanks for a great job.

Sincerely,
